The Student Code

University Responsibilities

This Code is underpinned by two primary objectives:

1. To provide a learning, teaching and research environment that enables students to achieve their full potential
2. To provide a University experience for students consistent with the University's values and guiding principles

Learning, teaching and research

The University aims to provide students with the opportunity to:

- Study in an academic environment which fosters student participation in debate and in which students can freely express alternative points of view
- Be considered for selection into courses or programs on the basis of criteria that are valid, explicit, fair and reliable
- Enrol in courses and programs of study that are of a high standard and satisfy relevant professional requirements
- Have reasonable access to appropriately qualified academic staff and academic and learning support services
- Have reasonable access to materials, equipment and other resources to enable completion of academic courses
- Receive timely and clear information in relation to courses and administrative procedures
- Receive timely and clear feedback on assessment
- Provide feedback on the teaching, learning and research environment
- Receive recognition of their copyright in relation to theses, essays and other submitted work; receive recognition for their contribution to published work of UNSW staff; and, protection of their legitimate share of intellectual property rights
- Study and work in a safe, tolerant and productive academic environment

The University experience

The University will use best endeavours to ensure that students:

- Are treated with courtesy, tolerance and respect as valued members of the University community
- Are provided with opportunity to participate in the decision-making processes of the University through elected student representatives
