

Date: Wednesday 25 May 2022

Time: 10:00am-11:30am

Venue: via Teams

Registration: via Teams link:

Purpose of the day:

To share research findings from CES Primary and Community Heath Cohort/Resource (CES-P&CH) explore opportunities or activities to improve coordination of care and reduce social isolation and loneliness among people aged 45 years and over.

Time	Item
9:50am	Arrival
10.00 am	Welcome and Introductions and welcome to country Prof Mark Harris CPHCE
10:10am	A/Prof Margo Barr, CPHCE
	Overview of social isolation, living alone and loneliness ŒS-P&CH research findings
10:20am	- facilitated by Tony Jackson SESLHD
	Sarah Steen, Team Leader of The Boarding house Outreach Service, Newtown Community Centre Matina Kremisis, Cheryl Bruce and Hang Trinh, Riverwood Community Centre Gareth Wreford, NSW Department of Communities and Justice
10:50am	Group/Small discussion - facilitated by Tony Jackson SESLHD
	What does it mean and how can this research inform service provision, integration, continuity of care etc
11.20am	Reflection, wrap up and next steps Prof Mark Harris, CPHCE
11:30am	Close

Newtown Neighbourhood Centre - https://www.newtowncentre.org/ Riverwood Community Centre - https://riverwoodcommunity.org.au/

