6. Special Consideration:

Assessments

Students unable to submit an assessment on time due to illness or misadventure should contact the Course Coordinator in the first instance. They will discuss the situation with the student to determine if a formal special consideration application is required.

UNSW Policy and information on special consideration can be found at:
<https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/atoz/SpecialConsideration.html>.

Application for special consideration must be made within 3 working days of the assessment to which it refers.
